

DFWAE Statement on Social Injustice

In the midst of challenging times, it is important that we as leaders and associations set an example within our profession and the fields that we represent. DFWAE supports all efforts to identify and combat racism and other forms of intolerance and to promote the values of respect, equality, and inclusion. Please join us as we commit to creating and maintaining a welcoming environment now and in the future. We are all in this together.